NOTES

- (i) It is expected that all the students would have studied three languages upto class VIII. Those students who could not clear the third language in class VIII, and have been promoted to class IX shall be examined by the schools concerned at the end of class IX in the same syllabus and text books as are prescribed for class VIII. Those who are still unable to clear the third language at the end of class IX may be given another opportunity in class X. No student shall be eligible to appear at the Secondary School Examination of the Board at the end of class X unless he/she has cleared the third language.
- (ii) Hindi and English must be two of the three languages to be offered as stated in the note (i) above. Hindi and English must have been studied at least upto class VIII.
- (iii) Hindi and English must be one of the two languages to be studied in class IX and X. Hindi and English can also be offered simultaneously. In Hindi and English, two courses have been provided for class IX and X keeping in view the varying background of the student. A student may either opt Communicative-English (Subject Code 101) or English Language and Literature (Subject Code 184). Similarly, in Hindi, a student may either opt for Hindi A or Hindi B.

3.3 INSTRUCTIONAL TIME

Assuming an academic week consisting of 45 periods of 40 minutes duration each, the broad distribution of periods per week will be as follows:

Subjects	Suggested periods for Class X
Language I	7
Language II	6
Mathematics	7
Science	9
Social Science	9
Work Education or Pre-Vocational Education (Please refer to the note on page 109)	3+3*/6
Art Education	2
Physical and Health Education	2

Expected to be spent outside school hours.

Note: while designing the courses it has been presumed that, given margin for vacations, public holidays and other contingencies, a minimum of 30 weeks of teaching time will be available in each session for actual instructional transaction. Accordingly the distribution of periods over units and sub-units has been done which is only suggestive in character. The school, keeping the overall number of periods in each subject/area the same, may assign more or less number of periods to individual units according to their relative importance, if thought necessary. The distribution of marks over each unit (unit wise weightage), is however, prescriptive hence shall remain, unchanged.

3.4 SPECIAL ADULT LITERACY DRIVE (SALD)

In pursuance of the objectives of National Literacy Mission, Govt. of India, Special Adult Literacy programme has been taken up by the Board from the academic session 1991-92 beginning with classes IX & XI as special measure to remove illiteracy through mass involvement of students. This has been termed as SALD. The SALD has been made an integral part of prescribed curriculum and incorporated in work-education as an essential component. Framework for SALD is given in Appendix 'A'.
