Dear Principal,

In our continuous endeavour in improving the quality of education and connecting to the latest trends, CBSE has recently revised the syllabus of Engineering Drawing and changed its name to Engineering Graphics with the introduction of Computer Aided Designing (CAD) in the syllabus.

CBSE is also in the process of preparation of text books of Engineering Graphics for Classes XI and XII. Class XI text book is ready and will be available in CBSE publication stores from the 1st week of October, 2010. Class XII text book is in the process of development. Sincerest efforts are being made to make the Class XII text book available to the students by November, 2010.

You are requested to disseminate the information to all concerned.

Yours faithfully,
